

PMP® Certification Exam Prep

Course Code: PM-08-ON
35 Contact Hours

This course is designed to cover the predictive, adaptive, and hybrid approaches of project management aligned with the new exam content for the PMP exam effective July 09, 2026. The course structure is virtual – five-day instructor-led via zoom or similar platform. At the end of the course, you will get a course completion certificate with 35 contact hours.

Through case studies and real-world scenario's, the course takes you from project management basics to advanced concepts so that you can approach the exam with confidence.

COURSE CURRICULUM

Welcome Note and Course Overview

PMP® Certification Exam Introduction

- Eligibility criteria
- Application process
- About the exam & strategies
- Exam format and question's structure
- Exam preparation & techniques

Foundational Project Management Concepts

Explore core project management principles, how predictive and adaptive approaches evolved and why tailoring project methods is essential.

Project Vision, Stakeholders and Governance

Establish a shared project vision, identify and engage stakeholders and define governance structures and decision pathways that support alignment and trust.

Defining Scope, Value, and Success Criteria

Define and break down project scope prioritize work based on value and ensure measurable business benefits, while managing compliance requirements.

Project Planning – Integration, Resources, and Finance

Develop integrated plans by estimating resources, planning, budgets and contingencies and aligning delivery approaches to organizational needs.

Procurement, Quality, and Scheduling

Plan procurement and quality approaches and develop realistic schedules to support effective project delivery.

Communication and Team Leadership

Apply communication strategies and leadership practices to support collaboration, manage conflict, empower teams and enable effective knowledge sharing.

Manage Risk, Change, and Performance

Practice proactive risk management and structured change control while assessing project performance and managing stakeholder expectations through ongoing communication.

Project Closure and Continuous Improvement

Close project by validating completion, transitioning deliverables, capturing lessons learned and supporting continuous organizational improvement.

Learning Objective:

This course is uniquely designed to help you pass the PMP® certification exam in the first attempt. Students gain a strong understanding of the project management predictive, agile and hybrid approaches.

It also provides you with the 35 contact hours required to satisfy Project Management Institute, Inc., project management education requirement.

Course Fee:

$599 payable in full at-least three days before the course start date.

Course Fee Includes:

- 35-hour instructor led training
- In-class practice exams & answers
- PMP exam tips and techniques
- Guidance on PMP exam application
- Mock exam

- Access to student resources on CCS website

Registration and Payment Procedure:

Registration and payment can be completed at www.canconsultprojects.com

Cancellation Policy:

The course fee is fully refundable (less administration charge of $100) if written cancellation request is received 10 business days prior to course start date. Requests for refunds will not be entertained after this time.

Can-Consult reserves the right to cancel the course no later than seven (7) days prior to course start date due to low enrolment or other reasons. If the course is cancelled by Can-Consult, a full (100%) refund will be provided to the registrant.